CEU (Continuing Education Unit) Requirements: CURRENT (Effective 1/1/2022):

To renew your Nevada Electrical Qualifications Card, you must obtain, every three years, a minimum of 1.8 CEUs (18 hours of instruction) for Electrical Journeyman, Residential, Sign or Low Voltage Technician, or 3.0 CEUs (30 hours of instruction) for Master, related to electrical code and electrical safety-related topics. These CEUs must consist of the following at a minimum:

1. An 8-hour class (0.8 CEUs) must be from a code-change class highlighting code changes to the current edition National Electrical Code for the renewal period from an ESP-approved CEU provider.
2. A 4-hour class (0.4 CEUs) must be on Electrical Safety based on NFPA 70E current edition from an ESP-approved CEU provider.
3. The balance of the CEUs can be from ESP-approved providers on electrical code and electrical safety-related topics.
4. Only CEUs issued by specific ESP-approved organizations on electrical code and electrical safety-related topics will be accepted.

See the ESP Website for more information on providers and courses that are acceptable for CEUs.
